So, been thinking about our beloved $GME stonk and wondering what the thoughts are in terms of order of short term play to not only deliver the tendies, but ensure sustainability and strength moving forward....

1) MOASS, Massive price increase, (let the volatility settle) 2) my reinvestment (from my shitty broker shares) into the true value of a future proof company & continuing holding of my DRS CS Shares, 3) then company release news on NFT marketplace & partnerships, 4) then post a great set of improving results.....

Please re order & add accordingly as to how you think it might pan out... - Feel free to add in the point that SHFs get fuked.... BUY / HODL / DRS
