I was helped a lot by this post:

/comments/ptqxys/european_broker_to_computershare_step_by_step/

T: sent a mail to Degiro (clients@degiro.ie) with this in the title: GME Position transfer demand 14738/302.

In the text of the email, I confirmed that I want to transfer to IBKR, I mentioned again the number of GME shares, the name of the company and that I agree with all the taxes for the transfer (it was 56 € for this transfer). In the attachments I put:

1. a screenshot of my IBKR account.
2. the transfer form from here: <https://www.degiro.ie/helpdesk/documents/portfolio-transfer-forms>

In the Outgoing Transfer of Investment Portfolio form, I filled:

Account details: INTERACTIVE BROKERS

Account number: my account number on Interactive Brokers

Email address of broker:

assettransferservice@interactivebrokers.com

Forgot to mention that I printed the Degiro transfer form, signed it and scanned it and added this to the email.

T (same day): On Interactive Brokers I went to Transfer & Pay > Transfer Positions > Basic FOP Transfer. And made the demand there for the US shares. Like this I don't have to wait 30 days to settle.

T+1: IBKR send a mail to inform me that: "You are not subscribed to real-time streaming market data for following positions: Find more information on available market data subscriptions here.

\- NYSE (Network A/CTA) Billed by Broker (P,L1)"

To activate this subscription, I went on the IBKR web to my account, little man top right-> User settings -> Trading Platform -> Market Data Subscriptions -> Current GFIS Subscriptions and press the configure icon on the left. Then North America -> Level I NBOO - > NYSE (Network A/CTA). They are in alphabetical order. The minimum amount in the account is 100 USD to be able to activate this.

T+2: I see already my GME shares in the IBKR portfolio. My GME shares are still in Degiro account but marked as UNTRADEABLE.

T+3 Degiro confirms that the transfer was successful. Checked again on IBKR and all my GME shares are there.

That's how my GME shares arrived from Degiro to IBKR in 3 working days.

EDIT 1: Forgot to mention that I printed the Degiro transfer form, signed it and scanned it and added this to the email.
