I've been hitting the happy plant all morning, so I might tend to wander.

I see several posts saying they are getting scared and thinking of selling (probably shills, use same phrases and questions.) If your afraid now wait till MOASS. Hell, this is the easy part ! Sure shit is dipping. Shocker!!!! Its probably going lower. Trying to shake any PHB out there that are left or just joined.

Look. This is the easy part of the journey. Our beloved chairman Mr Cohen is still in Gamestop is in better shape than it has been in forever. Big announcements incoming, SHF loosing $$$ left and right. FUD at all time high(why would they fight so hard if they didn't have to?) All we have to do is do nothing. Except - buy,hodl, and Drs . We lose no money unless u sell. so just be Zen and hold.

The hard part will be when liftoff happens. Will you be able to stay Zen when the number reaches 4, 5, 6, 7 digits? when Superstonk is shutdown , Media comes at u full force, politicians blame you for destruction of civilization? wife, husband , partner, tell you to sell. {glitches} effect your view of what is going on? The chaos and pressure is going to be like nothing any of us can foresee. But it is going to be a shitshow. This is going to be the hard part. Prepare yourselves. These SHF are playing for blood. They won't stop and will try to take everything down with them. They are led by narcissistic sociopaths. The only way to beat them is to be patient. Be Zen. Know you already won. If you have a floor stay in till your floor is hit. It will get there. If infinity your goal , just hodl. If it no cell no sell your goal. keep watching the news and wait. It really Isn't going to be easy.But nothing wonderful is ever easy .

The smarties can't beat us. we are to retarded and they can't understand. But don't underestimate there power and influence to try to make you think otherwise.

Fortune favors the tard
