I'm on a submarine, I spend most of my time underway or at work and rarely have time at home. I'm scared I'll be underway with no news or internet access during the moass. How do I explain to my wife to know when to sell during the gme moass. My personal floor is 20 million. But I've had a year to learn, she's been uninterested until lately and she's my only hope to secure the tendies. Please help
