I am an xx holder of gme, been in it since the beginning but as a UK ape I've shyed away from drs. Holdings are spread between: freetrade, etoro and Hargreaves lansdown.

I know etoro is out of the question for direct transfer but after seeing freetrade signed up for share lending I'm jumping ship there too.

I don't think I can transfer from free and etoro to ibkr. So do I sell in my other platforms and rebuy in HL and transfer from there or is there a better way to do this? I want my holding DRSD before the split.

Thanks in advance!
