A few weeks ago I started this journey trying to DRS my shares held in this bank (a credit union for non-french).

My bank advisor had no idea what I was trying to achieve, it escalated to a national internal service responsible for this kind of request, only one member of this staff knew how to do it for an US stock and even him had never done it before.

They searched for days and have found the way, they completed the request this morning.
I hope everything will be ok now.

The look on the face of my advisor and her boss (the director of this local bank) when I came today to fill in the form was priceless, they never expected to do this kind of things in a small bank in rural France.

If anybody is interested, I now have experience on what you should ask to DRS your GME shares.
