The current system seems to be built by corrupt parasites *for* corrupt parasites - a decaying empire built off the blood, sweat and tears of the common people, where we slave away creating value for our owners while trying desperately to feed ourselves, live in safe homes, save enough money to educate ourselves and our children & to take care of healthcare, retire and maybe see a bit of the world..

Meanwhile *Koward Grifter* ***does*** ***nothing*** ***but lie and steal*** and gets a 450 million dollar mansion for his efforts in a country that has millions of homeless vets..

Can *anybody* explain to me what value a stockbroker and all affiliated professions (that are Extremely overpaid and charge *thieving*, *parasitical* percentages instead of set-fees) add to society? A banker? A moneychanger? A lender?

Why can't we have 0% mortgages? - At least if the loan was 0% interest adjusted for inflation and you could only get a loan you could afford, and where you could downgrade to a smaller mortgage/house (while keeping equity) if you wanted or our circumstances changed for the worse.

Why f-cking not? It seems to me like the only reason we *have* interest payments for such a basic Human Right is to fatten the pockets of our corrupt, nasty, intellectual-yet-stupid "elites".

It seems to me like most governments are in the pockets of the biggest corporations in the world. Here's an idea - let's Buy, DRS, HODL; make the thieves pay back what they stole - what they owe us, *under their own rules* \- and then use that money to flip the pyramid upside down.

I've had enough of the pyramid scheme/monetary-based slavery of private central banking, let's make our own system and *for Once* \- let's *actually* have 'trickle down economics'/angel investing/charitable deeds & 0% interest loans, mortgages and gifts - no strings attached, no bribes, no vile favours, blackmail, kickbacks, favours, ego-boosting awards, titles or honorary degrees.

As Ryan Cohen said, *Now is the best time in history to be alive*. Well, I've never felt more alive than I do now, and I'm nearly ready to help build a fairer, more prosperous and less corrupt world with you all - for ourselves, our loved ones and our children.

***So say we all?***
