In preparation for the upcoming GME stock split and potential dividend is there anything we need to adjust in settings to prevent cash being paid back instead of an NFT or additional stock etc? I am a UK ape and buy through IBKR. When the shares are settled I DRS to Computershare so consequently I shares in both and some pending transfer (not showing on either). Spent a bit of time away from media but now things seem to be hitting up I wanted to see if anyone had any advice on this. Many Thanks.
