Hi,

So I havent DRS my xxx GME shares as of yet.

Mainly because im lazy and CS was a uncertain territory for me.

I've done alot of research and I understand CS is the way.

The problem is and the uncertainty in me is that they need to assist me in selling my shares when the time is right since im a foreign shareholder. It's not that I dont trust them, but mainly I dont trust anyone. My exit strategy is a bust when I have to contact them for selling.

So when the rocket has lifted and I'm ready to sell, its probably gonna take me hours to reach them because of the high demand in requests and im gonna be left bagholding.

I do think this company is worth way more than the share price is atm, but i'm in this to not wake up 6 am in the morning everyday for the next 40 years of my life. I'm going to reinvest atleast 30% back in the company when I sell and leave it forever.

I'm sorry to say, they assisting me in selling MY shares is not good enough for me. I'm currently working in head of customer service myself and I know how much demand it can cause in situations like this.

Do you guys have any input on this, any information that is left out?

Friendly reminder, non of this is FUD. I just want to assist the process for everybodies own good and this post may help other foreigners such as from Norway to DRS.

Thank you in advance!
