They didn't warn you before The 2008 market crash...

Media

They didn't warn you before Enron went bankrupt...

They didn't warn you before Toys R Us went bankrupt...

They didn't warn you before Sears went bankrupt...

They didn't warn you before Madoff ripped people off through his Ponzi scheme...

They don't have your best interest in mind. They never have. They never will.

The only time they care about your money is when it affects their money.

If they're trying to 'warn' you, it's not about protecting your money. It's about protecting theirs.

Don't give in to the FUD.
