Been researching a bunch of pro's & con's on DRS and was curious if anyone has done this directly through TDA or Fidel and what the process was?

How long did it take, etc.

On TDA it is stating you can transfer back for selling in less than a day, that's one the most positive thing I have read.

Not sure about Fidel but it seems like more of a process to transfer shares back from Computer for selling?

Still researching so don't rip my head off if I got something wrong!!!!

Cheers!
