clickbait title, but I was messing around on my brokerage platform trying to place a GTC order for 1,500,000 per share, just messing around and seeing if I could even do it at the moment.

I know about the "can't make an order for a certain % above current price" thing. anyway I got this message saying "your order violates the product order limit. your order is ____ and the maximum sell order amount is 250,000 EUR".

does this mean GME price is limited to 250K per share max?

my broker is degiro

thanks for any input
