I've been here thru it all, I've watched my account take 6 figure swings, I've bought the dip, I've voted I've DRS'd.

ANYBODY have a solid argument on how this is going to get resolved in this clown ass corrupt market that obviously gives zero fuks about crime and fraud that they're going to let the poors get paid?

Is there any actual benefit to Computershare or should I just send my GME back to my corrupt ass broker so I can sell some Covered Calls and make some money off these things?
