I'm sorry, way too much content is being removed from GMEJungle. We are being censored. I believe that this is another move from the same group. Pink is still actively defending Red and the other stonk mods. They just wanted to divide the readers to disrupt the DD but they accidentally exposed too much.

Why are posts exposing Rensole's past being removed from GMEJungle tonight. Why are posts about RCQ questionable racism / sex predator (with minors) past being removed. Why are references to Advance Publications being removed? I think Pink is still on the payroll or her sub is beyond her control.
