I do not trade crypto. Tbh, i was burned by some small tokens pretty bad so i stayed away. Here is the thing, AS SOON as I saw a post on SS and here regarding the Wallet allowing funds to be moved to L2 through the website. I bought $500 of eth JUST for the wallet. I even tried to buy something so I could be the first user to do so. DO YOU SEE MY POINT?

Food for thought:

Do you know what a Spin off is? Its when a company "spins off" and creates another company that trades on a diff ticker basically new shares issues .. SHF are FUKD. The spinoff will At least x2 their original short positions against GME originally. Add to the fact that their could be a dividend issues that cannot be "created" which could force some closures. Man. Weekends have lost their embrace as I wait for market open every Monday like Christmas. Because I realize the chess moves that have been made and the ignorance of hubris that has allowed the "Smart Money" Imfao. Smart money what an oxymoron. They would not have created this problem if they were Smart. They are quite stupid. CHEATING MONEY is more like it or BORROWED MONEY. Idk i digress

We moon. May not be soon but we moon. Lmao. Zen af with dry powder waiting for these Smart Money IDIOTS to allow me to buy a couple hundred more before Moon.

GME WILL NEVER GO AWAY AND NEITHER WILL THE APES.

P.S. computershare had a block on my account after my last purchase. You may want to see if you have one on yours so that you are not blindsided. I emailed in docs and still waiting in a response. Soooooo i transferred to fUdelity to then DRs to CS.

This has become a bore SHF. Take the L like a fucking man and GTFO before it costs you EVERYTHANG.

VW sque was not savage because Porsche gave an out. My shares are locked for infinity so no out. Ever.
