To all $GME #GME people, I would appreciate it if you reposted this or tagged the following in the comments until they can address this and say they will stop doing this.

THIS IS NOT A DRILL.

To AMC community,

The GME community would KINDLY appreciate it if you stopped putting AMC hashtags with GME news and vice versa.

This mainly is directed @matt\_kohrs

@TradesTrey @masked\_investor

@jhuntermav @TaraBull808

These two stocks are very different plays and no one wants AMC garbage diluting GME news. For people saying that they own both, good for you. People who own $AMZN & $HOOD for example don't hashtag their news together so why should GME/AMC...

I URGE everyone to tag these people in the comments and have them address this.

Sincerely, GME COMMUNITY.
