I have some 16 shares of GME and am planning on DRSing 28 more from IBKR once those criminals lift the DRS suspension from their platform. I wanted to ask about selling as a European. Once the price hits the multiple-hundreds-thousands I will sell one of the shares to help my sister and parents. I am only mentioning that to not seem egoistic and mean, I am keeping 99% of the rest shares forever for the sweet dividends.

Anyways, I know that EU citizens get paid with a 'check' from ComputerShare. How does that work? Do I go to a bank and redeem it? What kind of bank will have $1M to pay a retard for just one share?

Or can I just un-DRS them back to IBKR and withdraw the realised return from there? Cheers
