So all this discussion about ToS and accounts getting closed has people missing the big picture.

We just got a 4-1 share split bring us to 300m

This can go up to 1B... so potentially another 3-1 split

$3+4=7$

Already had the 4

Originally we had 1

741

Now what we saw at 50% DRS was GameStop gave DTCC shares.

What happens when we are 100% and issue the 3-1 split... GameStop gives DTCC 0 shares. Game stopped ■

Just a thought, not financial advice, I actually don't even know what this means, maybe I'm intoxicated, maybe it's obvious, maybe I should stop talking. Anyway let me know what you think because I'm just thinking out loud
