Hi all,

So i've been DRS-ing my GME shares but I've noticed the Cost-basis is missing. Not a big deal now as I am planning to hold/hodl but when I go to sell that won't be taken into account. Can I even sell without a cost basis?

I've called my broker about this before and they blamed computer share (and computer share blamed the broker). I am now purchasing through computer share so the cost basis is there, but hoping for some insight in case anyone else has had this issue.
