So posting here cuz i dont have karma requirements of Superstonk. I'm holding GME in IBKR ISA - I retardedly thought I could drs from it and moved everything over to ISA and now can't move out into normal account unless I sell. I would sell and rebuy but I don't wanna get caught out of the marketplace is surprise-released sooner than expected. Will IBKR fuck me on the stock dividend or not ? Anyone in same scenario as me ? Any advice appreciated.
