I know everybody wants the satisfaction of seeing repeating patterns in the SP. But this Algo stuff reminds me of the “ratio at b—sons” FUD that we had a while ago. It seems like an attempt to create a rabbit hole for the smoother brains.

Note how vague he is. The lines that he's drawn on the chart don't seem to correspond to actual price movement for the most part. At best it's just crap poorly explained DD, at worst it's an attempt to mislead people.

Please be careful about upvoting. I'm not sure how this made it into “hot”.
