Not sure who still needs to hear this, but GME is super cheap right now. It is the best financial decision that I have taken in my whole life. Everything around it makes it very appealing to me, they got a lot of support from the APES, and they are innovating. I mean what is there not to like about GME? Thanks to GME APES have uncovered the unfairness of the financial market and demonstrated that it needs changes. It is more than a good financial decision, it is a movement that will be remembered forever. A movement that has looked at the past (market manipulation and unfairness), it's changing the present (Tendies!) and leading the future (Loopring, IMX, GME). Let's become legends!!!

Not financial advice.
