Not sure if this has been flagged before but imagine us Europeans and worldwide investors who like the stock that currently cannot support by buying #GME products, who all of a sudden would be able to open the flood gates and spend on the new NFT / online digital platform... This enables us to 1) invest in a company that we love. 2) support the long term growth and sustainability of this new digital proposal. 3) Feel a true part of something that could ultimately become the biggest worldwide sensation there has ever been. The Hedgefucks and fake news US media are blinkered and manipulated on just the US market, this move will mean endless possibilities across the world! No advice just a very excited European who keeps buying / Hodling & DRSing!
