Yo team Ape,

So we've been on this for about a year. Happy short term gains tax for a lot of us this week.

Awhile back we decided to DRS cuz we owned it, and nobody can dork around with our beloved GME. However, I am uncomfortable with the way nobody is addressing the fact that we still have to use a broker to sell from Computershare.

Ya, we own. That means we also have to sell. Still takes a broker...unless you know a homeboy that is going to buy my GME for mad cash.

So, who is computershare's broker?
