So I have 120 shares of gme half of which I bought at 300$+ mark... lol averaged down to 200$. Took a long time. I would like to drs them... but I'm a Canadian ape and sadly fairly strapped for cash now. Is there a way to get them drs'd that won't cost me an arm and a leg?

I have half in wealthsimple and half in Questrade.

Also did any Canadian apes have their buy button cancelled out when it first happened that faithful day last year?

I had my shares in questrade and I literally got logged out during the run up. And I couldn't log back in. Tried for hours. -,- anyone else experienced that?
