

Title: Why is GME dumping their IMX? And why is no one here mentioning it?

So Gamestop got a huge share of IMX tokens. And now, a day after the announcement, they are dumping a huge part of that on the market. IMX is taking. Volume in 24hrs is $300M, while GME itself sold like $30M.

I don't own IMX, but to see no discussion about it here is kind of worrying.
