Securities that you take positions in aren't YOURS unless you DIRECTLY REGISTER them! Unless you DIRECTLY REGISTER them, they are held in the DTCC, (Intermediary for Cede & Co. who manages ALL Securities on the NYSE,) and are MARKED under your Broker's STREET NAME.

It does not matter what your Bank/Firm/Broker tell you! It does not matter if they INSIST that they do not LOCATE or LEND positions in CASH ACCOUNTS. The DTCC forcibly LOCATES and LENDS to maintain LIQUIDITY in the Market. This means they are HELPING the SHORTS, aka HEDGIE FUCKS and their friends with your NON-DRS'ed positions! Your Bank/Firm/Broker can do NOTHING to stop this.

The ONLY way to stop this is to Directly Register your shares in your name with, (in this case Computershare for Gamestop,) your company's Authorized Transfer Agent. Once you have initiated a DRS you will need to make sure to convert to BOOK Plan vs. HOLDING. This removes them from the DTCC's grasp, and secures the FULL OWNERSHIP and BENEFITS for YOU!

BUY, DRS, HODL. (Not Financial Advice™)
