From today's filing!

Doesn't get more blatant than this. GME have to report every risk to their public investors, and ongoing failure to cover short positions — which they are clearly aware of — continues to be publicly reported as of today.

GME know far more about the state of their stock ownership than we do. The fact this continues to be reported is bullish AF.

Buy. Hodl. Stay zen. Be good. Don't forget to call your mother. We all know what to do by now! ■■
