We are finally back on track and on router to Mars, don't forget We are the decision-making force so just keep going and keep winning .

We held for over a year, real apes won't sell so don't listen to all the rubbish on the news feed. Hold, buy more and then hodl until the price is right for you, it's your choice but no real apes are selling at 18$! In fact we are buying more ■■. Do not listen to these morons who cheer for a 15% price movement. GME to the moon
