Imploring my Father-in-Law who's based in the Netherlands to DRS his GameStop Shares (GS2C) via RaboBank.

A while ago, I remember seeing a discussion that went into how GS2C Shares could be converted into GME Shares after being DRS'ed. Can a Dutch/German Ape confirm this? Alternatively, are GS2C Shares accounted for within the Stock Dividend?

Regardless, he will be DRS'ing his Shares, as we both have no belief in the Stock Dividend being distributed across RaboBank Holders but if we can convert them into GME Shares at the same time, I believe this will be beneficial in the future.

Thanks in advance for any points you bring up.
