It's seem like bunch of people knew the stock would run after hours so again my question is how's isn't this manipulative, insider trading and media (WSJ, CNBC) blatantly complicit with this crime?

Listen to the news

Rumors of video game retailer GameStop Corp (NYSE:GME) entering the non-fungible token space started in April 2021 with job postings seeking someone with experience in NFTs, cryptocurrency and blockchain technologies. A new report shows an NFT marketplace from the company could be imminent.

What Happened: GameStop is launching a division to develop an NFT marketplace and launch cryptocurrency partnerships, according to a Wall Street Journal report.

Over 70 people have been hired to run the unit, which will to build what will ultimately become a much larger business," GameStop CEO Matt Furlong said on the company's recent earnings call. Furlong mentioned GameStop was exploring business opportunities in the NFT space.

Why It's Important: NFT marketplace OpenSea is valued at $13.3 billion in a recent $300 million funding round this week. Fellow meme stock darling AMC Entertainment Holdings (NYSE:AMC) entered the NFT space in 2021 with Soldier Man themed NFTs to coincide with "Soldier Man" to enter the cryptocurrency space, a suggestion he had in 2021.

@GaryGensler Question how is this not market manipulation the WSJ article didn't get published until 37 minutes after closing a full 10 minutes of "unexplained pump" (banks, institutions covering) plus all the options call put in earlier yesterday.
