Hi guys and galls, I come here with a short message that i am going to try to make longer for the minimum text.

I am an X holder since Feb 2021, I've seen the highs and the lows. Through this journey I have been and still basically am broke and flowing from overdraft to having money and back into overdraft which is an ongoing cycle.

Anyways, the real reason im here is that I called the candle of the month June 2021 on the monthly chart when i was with my Ex and now I am luckily I am in a much happier relationship and I am calling that this monthly candle will hit 150 to 200 before the month ends or it will form in a way for the next upcoming monthly candle to do so.

Since there's no more hype dates, I hereby submit my Hype request for the end of this month and further Hype down the road of April and basically every other month because I am hyped to see this stop go up since the day i bought it and my relationship with it is emotional and maybe sexual.

Thank you very much, I hope you're all doing great. I already tried to post on another subreddit before it flew you can see it on my profile. Enjoy the ride guys and GME to the moon■■■■■
