What's up with IBKR?

I sent some GME to IBKR, swapped my native currency to 5$ and waited a week just to be sure, the "transfer & pay" button now disappears when I log in, "o- fucking k". I manually enter the link for it and then DRS.

I remember they don't give you any updates on the transfer, so I checked in on my status&history; after a couple of weeks (button is now back), history is deleted. The 5$ is converted back to my native currency, but they kept the fee for converting.

Convert 5$ again.. the fucking transfer button disappears, lol. Hopefully it'll work this time, or they fucked me out of the dividend. /sadface
