Financial wisdom says that you're supposed to hold on and add to your position to make money over time but when we do that we're stupid and don't know what we're doing. Bottom line: We figured out their game and used it against them and now they're crying foul and trying to take back their ball and go home like a **SPOILED, BRATTY LITTLE KID**. Well you can't have your ball back and the **GME** isn't over until we say it is.

say it is.
