■■■■ The first weekend of r/GME's NFT Party is now live! ■■■■

Today begins a weekly, fun, and exciting addition to the r/GME Community ■■ Starting this weekend (Saturday and Sunday) NFTs will be allowed to be shared in the community ■.

■■ How it all will work, NFT creator apes out there in the Community comment your NFT in this thread and anyone who wants one comment with your wallet address below that comment ■■

■■ When the creator has given away all their NFTs we ask that you edit your comment to let others know you're all out! ■■

Though there are some rules and they must be followed or your comment will be removed.

1. No selling or buying of NFTs, all must be given away. No asking for tips.
2. No copies of others NFTs or artwork!
3. No links to OpenSea, Loopring wallet addresses are fine as they are a GME partner, and we know not everyone has a GME NFT Wallet yet.
4. No NFTs during the trading week (Monday through Friday)

We're beyond excited to see what great NFTs the Community has to share with others! Let's get those GameStop NFT Wallets loaded up and have ourselves a good time ■■■■

■Plus a little sneak peak to keep your eyes out for, we will be having a community banner contest ■■! So the artist apes out there start preparing your banners now and be on the lookout for the pinned post when it goes live!■
