Good morning all, researched investor here.

I do all my other trades all on tradestation, aside from my gme locked away in CS. It's a hobby outside of it.

Long story short: They didn't provide a reason aside from "the trading desk is blocking all trades."

To continue: the hold robo music announcer stated

"we are not allowing certain trades as they've been marked "impossible to borrow", we are sorry for the inconvenience".

Tldr: You cannot place certain trades or at all on tradestation.
