Charles Stanley is a UK based broker that charges £50 for each DRS transfer. As they are a broker for wealthier investors it likely won't be an issue. But if you want to save some money, you could transfer to another UK broker that can DRS transfer for free.

In the UK banks/broker's such as Halifax, Lloyds and iWeb can DRS transfer for free.

Another option is to transfer to an international broker such as Revolut, or IBKR. Revolut can DRS for free and IBKR charge a small fee of $5.

Guides for all these brokers are available on the site!
