With the announcement of GameStop offering a stock dividend which at a very minimum will double your investment why the fuck would every man and their dog with a dollar to their name not get on board.

Current interest rates are less then 1% in a savings account. RC has announced a very likely minimum 100% return with a realistic chance of 700% in the coming few months.

Are we apes missing something? I know we are not. I'm just asking for a friend. His name is Kenny and he currently has his shorts round his ankles.
