IMPORTANT INFORMATION — RETAIN FOR YOUR RECORDS.

This advice is your record of the share transaction in your account on the books of the Company as part of the Direct Registration System. This advice is neither a negotiable instrument nor a security, and delivery of it does not of itself confer any rights to the recipient. It should be kept with your important documents as a record of your ownership of these shares. No action on your part is required. If offered and you wish to obtain a certificate, please access your account via the Investor Center website or contact a customer service agent. Fees may apply to certificate issuances. Certificate requests made as part of a transfer of shares may be subject to a fee. If your shares were covered by the legislation and you have sold or transferred the shares, you may be required to deliver the first in, first out (FIFO) for equity issuers or for certain closed-end funds, even if the shares were not sold or transferred until after January 1, 2012. Please visit our website or consult your tax advisor if you need additional information about the Company's Rights Agreement, if any, preferences and limitations of the shares of each class or series, and the authority of the Board of Directors to divide the shares into series and to determine and change rights, preferences and limitations of any class or series. Assets are not deposits of Computershare and are not insured by the FDIC or any other federal or state agency. Your property could become subject to state unclaimed property laws and transferred to the appropriate state.

If you do not keep in contact with us or do not have any activity in your account, your property could become subject to state unclaimed property laws and transferred to the appropriate state.
