Hello all.

So my problem is that I created an account before I received the letter (without a holder account number) and now that the letter is here (after 3 months) I can't connect my Holder Account number to my account. So I can't see my shares.

By the way, this is the most shittiest site ever created, I have to clear the cookies like every 30 minutes, it's so annoying.

Anyway I have lots of GME shares to DRS, but till this is done I'm too afraid to send them.

If anyone had similar issues please help.
