I cannot believe how perfectly he explains everything. I am still trying to get my head around all the psychological manipulation being perpetuated by the mass media but wow, this is overwhelming to see everything explained so well and making perfect sense. If you have a few mins out of your day and really want to be informed about the entire GME short squeeze time line, I highly recommend this video.

PS. His statements about Elon are so on point it give me the chills.

Cheers apes. Let's get this money.
