Hey everyone.

I live in a country not included in the list of Computershare countries.

the last time I asked about DRSing, I was advised to buy a share through giftashare, and that would create my account. I bought one share of the cinema group (GME was too expensive back then) and got my account set up. Now I'd like to purchase through CS...but need to set up an account there too, and it's only for US-based individuals.

Can anyone advise what I can do now? Apologies if this is a basic question. I've tried setting up an account on IB, but it I'm stuck in an authentication loop.

Thank you.
