I've recently created and sold the entirety of my first ever NFT collection - an assortment of loopring/gamestop coins.

To commemorate the occasion I am going to send everyone that replies with their L2 wallet address/ENS a free celebratory coin!

Here's what the celebratory coin looks like - let me know what you think!

Tips are of course welcome, but not necessary ■ they would help me with minting + transferring costs at the very least, and will also encourage me to share more with the community!

Those who donate will be prioritised, otherwise please be patient with delivery times ■■

■ HOW MANY COINS ARE There? ■

Right now I will mint coins continually until April 1st, then all remaining coins will be burnt. That means this is a limited edition coin!

■ IF YOU HAVE ALREADY CLAIMED ONE ■

Please don't try to claim another one. The first one is free, otherwise coins are 3lrc each to cover my costs.

■ HOW TO VIEW THE NFT ■

IOS - NFTs are not supported as of yet

Android - NFTs are displayed under your L2 wallet, in the collectibles tab. However, gifs do not always appear correctly.

Loopring. io - You can connect your wallet to this website to view your NFTs on any browser.
