Brokers like Fidelity, etc. don't allow IRA in-kind transfers DRS directly to Computershare and you choose your own custodian. They only allow for IRA in-kind transfers between and to be held by other market participant brokers and market participant IRA custodians like Ally and Mainstar .

This is designed to keep you and your GME IRA in their market participant broker network and continue the Fuckery.

**The only way to move your IRA out of the Fuckery network without any tax implications** is with the DIY in-kind distribution and rollover solution directly into Computershare and use a true SDIRA custodian who is not a market participant.

**And** **the in-kind distribution and rollover cannot be denied by your broker.****
