A bit of a tin foil thought that occurred to me, but the other day wasn't there a video by Anonymous calling out Kenny boy and then mentioning their coin? And wasn't there a concern from our wonderful government worrying about cyber attacks and what not? I wouldn't be entirely surprised if when those "cyber attacks" start happening, they'll try to link it to that video, crypto and other online communities (cough gme). I could just be delirious from lack of sleep morning thoughts too.
