What if we started to DRS all the meme stock shares not just Gme and ■? Would that hurt the hedge funds even more. If we made it harder to short all the stocks they use to run GME down on us. It would be an attack on all sides maybe.

I am just a smooth brain ape ,but What if? Would it do anything to help out precious GME? Either way it would not hurt us any to have all the shares of every stock we own in our name. Would it?
