GME now being specifically held below that $100 price for 10 days now. No positive news is lifting it - and believe me I want lift-off! There's more than MM/SEC collusion here. They don't want 100's of thousands of newly-minted millionaires running around. Look at the Ripple court case - being deliberately stalled - and where's Brad? - at DAVOS with the WEF psychopaths. They have a plan that involves timing, and doesn't involve sharing billions with us. It's about complete global control. They'll do whatever is necessary to stop the skweez . But I won't fold. Not now. No point. Been holding too long. I've DRS'd to CS. What will be will be. ■ ■ ■
