

Title: Denied Federal Gig Worker Aid

Author: crocosmia_mix

Created 2022-07-03 02:39:43 UTC

Permalink: /r/GME/comments/vq7gln/denied_federal_gig_worker_aid/

Url: https://www.reddit.com/r/GME/comments/vq7gln/denied_federal_gig_worker_aid/

Hello,

I let someone else invest a portion of my stimulus check in GME to participate in this phenomenon.

I hate to be political, but does anyone remember the American gig worker relief aid?

<https://www.cnbc.com/2020/07/06/gig-workers-are-eligible-for-this-1000-government-grant.html>

Back in 2020, I qualified for this and was denied by my state. I appealed the state's decision to a federal court. IANAL, I am a freelance commercial writer online. The federal court's decision was, "we know this is federal emergency relief money, but it was the state's choice and we uphold it." I believe that the state has no right to deny people federal aid.

I noticed a thread on here about need. I thought this amount was $500, but it was more than that. Would anyone be interested in sending me $500 if you agree that a state government cannot deny workers and writers emergency relief based upon its own power tripping ways & that the federal review ruled incorrectly?

I will print this post off and a copy of your donation and send it to our Governor with a note that the donation is for writers. With the donation, I can take a picture of how many shares it will buy and send it to you. This happened in the American Midwest in 2020.

I'm curious if ape would help ape. I have no idea why my family members even got the aid, but they said no and the government upheld it. I figure I should invest it. If they won't play fair, who knows what else could happen down the line? I might need to make money this way vs. rely on people who are manipulating government currency in the future.

I believe GME is in the same spirit. I don't even have a 401k. I'm 34 with a degree and usually stuck in temp jobs. I do not own a home. My family is wealthy, but doesn't not give me money. I get tired of how they treat me and have no safety net. I am also a mom. No sob story, but I don't understand why some people succeed in capitalism or receive help. I am really disappointed the government didn't rule in my favor. Lately, I am wondering how life will play out and how I will provide for my own kids or have emergency cash of my own besides my small hustle.

I believe everyone needs money even if I am a socialist, like if you can't seem to snag the right jobs and people won't help. I don't think financial exclusion is fair and will impact my kids. Maybe, I shouldn't send a letter about it. I don't trust the straight financial world or them now.