

Title: I need help from Europoors that transferred from Saxo to IBKR in order to DRS. I've been trying for 2 weeks

I've been a lurker for a long time but the recent events made me at last take action and DRS. I have shares at T212 that offer no transfer option and about half at Saxo. I requested the transfer via IBKR and it has been approved, I sent a mail to Saxo with the signed transfer letter and I've been getting 0 response. I called both brokers and each of them says that the other must contact them first in order to go on with the transfer. I read all DRS guides but there are none that are up to date with Saxo's current options.

If some fellow apes found a way around, I'd be adding my GME shares to the DRS count and avoiding getting mayo'd by brokers
