So I think I've seen a couple different styles tweets speaking on the March 8th Apple Event. You know the tweet that has a short few second clip with a heart that appears and then it shows the Apple appear after that?

Well I saw one of the comments and she said something about it being International Woman's Day. Now I wouldn't have thought twice about this, but why the multicolored heart? We have been relating this to hopes of a GME affiliation but what does the heart have to do with it if it was that? Think it could be something to do with that girls comment instead.

I love all you women! BUT PLEASE, let this be something in reference to GME. LOL
